CHECK YOUR VOCABULARY FOR ENGLISH FOR THE

IELTS EXAMINATION

A WORKBOOK FOR STUDENTS

by Rawdon Wyatt
About this workbook

Introduction
This workbook has been written for students who are planning to sit either the general training or the academic modules of the IELTS exam. It covers some of the main vocabulary points that you will need for, or come across in, the listening, reading, writing and speaking sections of the exam.

We hope that you find the modules in this book useful and that the vocabulary you acquire will help you to achieve the grade you want in the IELTS.

Good luck!

Structure of the IELTS Workbook
Each vocabulary area is presented in the form of a self-contained module with task-based activities which present each vocabulary item in a real context.

- Pages 1-48 focus on general vocabulary items which can be used in all aspects of your English. Some of these are relevant to specific tasks in the IELTS exam (for example, describing how something works, writing a letter or describing a table).

- Pages 49-95 focus on topic-specific vocabulary areas which may be required in the exam (for example, education, business and industry or global problems). Each module consists of three tasks: the first two present vocabulary items in context, and the third gives you the opportunity to review the vocabulary in the form of a gap-fill exercise.

Using the IELTS Workbook
You should not go through the modules mechanically. It is better to choose areas that you are unfamiliar with, or areas that you feel are of specific interest or importance to yourself.

Vocabulary Record Sheet
Remember that you should keep a record of new words and expressions that you learn, and review these from time to time so that they become an active part of your vocabulary. There is a vocabulary record sheet at the back of the book which you can photocopy as many times as you like and use to build up your own personal vocabulary bank.

Extending Your Vocabulary
Also remember that there are other methods of acquiring new vocabulary. For example, you should read as much as possible from a different variety of authentic reading materials (books, newspapers, magazines, etc).

Using an English dictionary
To help you learn English, you should use an English dictionary that can clearly define words, provide information about grammar and give sample sentences to show how words are used in context. You can use any good learner’s English dictionary with this workbook, but it has been written using the material in the English Dictionary for Students (ISBN 1-901659-06-2), published by Peter Collin Publishing (www.petercollin.com).

International English Language Testing System (IELTS)
This workbook has been written to help you improve your vocabulary when working towards the International English Language Testing System (IELTS) examination. The IELTS English examination is administered by the University of Cambridge Local Examinations Syndicate, The British Council and IDP Education Australia. For further information, visit the www.icles.org.uk website.

Describing & analysing tables

A. Look at the four tables below. These show demographic trends in four different countries between 1996 and 2000. The numbers on the left and right of each table show the number of people in millions. Using the information in these tables, match sentences 1-13 on the next page with the appropriate country. Use the words and expressions in bold to help you.

Country 1: Lycia

How something works

A. Look at these sentences and decide which object is being described in each one. Use the words in bold to help you. You will find the objects hidden in the word grid at the bottom of the page.

1. The most important part of this object is a strip of two different metals, one on top of the other. As they heat up, both metals expand, but one does it faster than the other. The strip bends and connects with a switch, which turns off the power supply. When the strip cools down, the metals contract and the switch is disconnected. (1 word)

2. This object has several component parts, most of which are made of plastic. A disc inserted into the object spins quickly. At the same time a thin beam of light strikes the disc and converts digital symbols into sounds. These sounds can be increased or decreased in volume by means of a button or dial. (3 words)

3. Liquid and gas are compressed in a hard metal tube. This can be released by pushing or squeezing a button which opens a valve. When the liquid-gas combination leaves the tube and is mixed with oxygen, it rapidly expands. (1 word)

4. This object is mainly made of aluminium. As it moves forward, air flows over two horizontal sections. As it accelerates, a vacuum is formed over the horizontal sections and the object is pulled into the air by the force of this vacuum. (1 word)

5. This object consists of two main parts; one is made mainly of plastic and metal, the other is made mainly of glass. Light enters the glass section and a small door in the device opens up when a button is pressed. At the same time, a smaller window called an aperture adjusts itself to control the amount of light. The light is then absorbed by a sheet of plastic coated in a special chemical. An image is formed and this can then be processed and developed into a two-dimensional paper-based object. (1 word)

6. A sharp blade inside a plastic container rotates very quickly. It chops or grinds anything it touches, which we can then use to produce soup, sauces and dressing. (2 words)

7. This is a very simple object which originated in China. A small piece of paper is lit with a match. It burns away until the flame ignites the chemical compound inside a cardboard tube. The result is a display of light and colour. (1 word)

B. There are nine more objects hidden in the grid. Choose four of them and write a brief description of how they work, using the bold words and expressions above.
Writing a letter

A. Below, you will see eleven common situations that people encounter when they are writing a formal letter. Choose the sentence or phrase (A, B or C) that would be most appropriate in each situation.

1. You are writing a letter to the headteacher of a school or college, but you don’t know their name. How do you begin your letter?
   A. Dear headteacher    B. Dear Sir / Madam    C. Dear Sir

2. You have received a letter from the manager of a company which buys computer components from your company, and you are now replying. What do you say?
   (A) Thank you for your letter.    B. Thanks a lot for your letter.    C. It was great to hear from you.

3. You recently stayed in a hotel and were very unhappy with the service you received. You are now writing to the manager. What do you say?
   A. I had a horrible time at your hotel recently.    B. I would like to say that I am unhappy about your hotel.    C. I would like to complain about the service I received at your hotel recently.

4. You have sent a letter of application to a college, together with your curriculum vitae which the college requested. What do you say in the letter to explain that your curriculum vitae is attached?
   A. You asked for my curriculum vitae, so here it is.    B. As you can see, I’ve enclosed my curriculum vitae.    C. As you requested, I enclose my curriculum vitae.

5. You have applied for a job, but you would like the company to send you more information. What do you say?
   (A) I would be grateful if you would send me more information.    B. I want you to send me more information.    C. Send me some more information, if you don’t mind.

6. In a letter you have written to a company, you tell them that you expect them to reply. What do you say?
   A. Write back to me soon, please.    B. Please drop me a line soon.    C. I look forward to hearing from you soon.

7. In a letter you have written, you want the recipient to do something and are thanking them in advance of their action. What do you say?
   (A) Thank you for your attention in this matter.    B. Thanks for doing something about it.    C. I am gratified that you will take appropriate action.

8. The company you work for has received an order from another company and you are writing to them to acknowledge the order and let them know when you can deliver. What do you say?
   A. About the order you sent on 12 January for...    B. I would like to remind you of the order you sent on 12 January for...    C. I refer to your order of 12 January

9. In a letter, you explain that the recipient can contact you if they want more information. What do you say?
   A. Give me a call if you want some more information.    B. If you would like any more information, please do not hesitate to contact me.    C. If you would like any more information, why not get in touch?

10. You began a letter with the recipient’s name (e.g., Dear Mr. Perrin). How do you end the letter?
    A. Yours faithfully    B. Yours sincerely    C. Best wishes

11. You did not begin the letter with the recipient’s name (see number 1 above). How do you end the letter?
    (A) Yours faithfully    B. Yours sincerely    C. Best wishes

B. Look at these sentences and decide if they are true or false.

1. Formal letters are always longer than informal letters.
2. In a formal letter it is acceptable to use colloquial English, slang and idioms.
3. In a formal letter it is acceptable to use contractions (e.g., I’ve instead of I have)
4. In a formal letter you should include your name and address at the top of the page.
5. In a formal letter, you should always write the date in full (e.g., 1 April 2000 and not 1/4/00).
6. In a formal letter, you should always put your full name (e.g., James Harcourt and not J. Harcourt) after your signature at the bottom of the letter.
7. Formal letters do not need to be broken into paragraphs. It is acceptable to write them as one continuous paragraph.

Presenting an argument

A. Read the text below, in which somebody is trying to decide whether to go straight to university from school, or spend a year travelling around the world. Put their argument into the correct order, using the key words and expressions in italics to help you. The first one and last one have been done for you.

A. (1) I’m really in two minds about what to do when I leave school. Should I go straight to university or should I spend a year travelling around the world?

B. It is often said that knowledge is the key to power, and I cannot disagree with this.

C. On the one hand, I would experience lots of different cultures.

D. Unfortunately, another point is that if I spent a year travelling I would need a lot of money.

E. And I’m not alone in this opinion. Many consider a sound career and a good salary to be an important goal.

F. However, it could be argued that I would also meet lots of interesting people while I was travelling.

G. Secondly, if I go straight to university, I’ll learn so many things that will help me in my future life.

H. First of all, there are so many benefits of going straight to university.

I. But I believe that it would be easy to make a bit while I was travelling, giving English lessons or working in hotels and shops.

J. Moreover, I’ll be able to take part in the social activities that the university offers, and meet lots of new friends who share the same interests.

K. The most important point is that the sooner I get my qualifications, the quicker I’ll get a job and start earning.

L. Nevertheless, these inconveniences would be an inevitable part of travelling and would be greatly outweighed by the other advantages.

M. In my opinion, starting work and making money is one of the most important things in life.

N. On the other hand, I could end up suffering from culture shock, homesickness and some strange tropical diseases.

O. Furthermore, if I spent a year travelling, I would learn more about the world.

P. (16) All right, I’ve made my mind up. Now, where’s my nearest travel agency?

B. Using the key words and expressions in italic from the last exercise, present an argument for one of the following issues:

1. A government’s main priority is to provide education for its people.

2. The only way to save the environment is for governments to impose strict quotas on the energy we use (for example, by restricting car ownership, limiting the water we use).

3. Satisfaction in your job is more important than the money you earn.

4. Living in a town or city is better than living in the countryside.

5. It is our responsibility to help or look after those less fortunate than ourselves (for example, the homeless, the mentally ill).

Phrasal verbs

Phrasal verbs (a verb and a preposition / prepositions combined to form a new expression) are a large and very important area of English vocabulary which many students ignore. There are a lot of them, and many phrasal verbs can have more than one meaning.

Below, on the left, you will see a list of many of the verbs which are used to make phrasal verbs (the most commonly used ones are in bold). On the right you will see the prepositions which can work with these verbs to form phrasal verbs. Use a dictionary to find out which verb / preposition combinations are possible and complete the table at the bottom of the page.

You should try to build up a bank of the phrasal verbs which you are unfamiliar with and which you think are important. On the next page, there is a record sheet which you can photocopy as many times as you like, make a note of phrasal verbs on, and add to your files.

Don’t forget that some phrasal verbs use more than one preposition (for example, We ran _up against_ some problems)

9. After that he followed a _______________ course in photography from a college in the USA using the Internet.

10. The _______________ he gained impressed an advertising company he wanted to work for.

11. Although he is now working, he has decided to attend an _______________ after work, although he was disappointed that his boss didn’t offer him _______________.

Task 3: Now read this essay and complete the gaps with one of the words or expressions from Tasks 1 and 2. You may need to change the form of some of the words.

‘You are never too old to learn’. Do you agree with this statement?

Education is a long process that not only provides us with basic (1) _______________ such as (2) _______________ and (3) _______________ , but is also essential in shaping our future lives. From the moment we enter (4) _______________ as small children, and as we progress through (5) _______________ and (6) _______________ education, we are laying the foundations for the life ahead of us. We must (7) _______________ ourselves to work hard so that we can (8) _______________ exams and gain the (9) _______________ we will need to secure a good job. We must also (10) _______________ valuable life skills so that we can fit in and work with those around us. And of course (11) _______________ education helps us to understand how we can stay fit and healthy.

For most people, this process ends when they are in their mid-to-late teens. For others, however, it is the beginning of a lifetime of learning. After they finish school, many progress to (12) _______________ education where they will learn more useful skills such as computer literacy or basic business management. Others will (13) _______________ on a programme of (14) _______________ education at a university where, with hard work, they will have the opportunity to (15) _______________ after three or four years with a well-earned (16) _______________. After that, they may work for a while before opting to study for a (17) _______________ degree - an MA, for example, or a PhD. Alternatively, they may choose to attend an (18) _______________ after work or, if they have a sympathetic employer, obtain (19) _______________ so that they can study during the week. And if they live a long way from a college or university, they might follow a (20) _______________ course using mail and the Internet. In fact, it is largely due to the proliferation of computers that many people, who have not been near a school for many years, have started to study again and can proudly class themselves as (21) _______________ students.

We live in a fascinating and constantly changing world, and we must continually learn and acquire new knowledge if we are to adapt and keep up with changing events. Our schooldays are just the beginning of this process, and we should make the best of every (22) _______________ to develop ourselves, whether we are eighteen or eighty. You are, indeed, never too old to learn.

Interviewer: Welcome to today's programme. Today we will be discussing the 1____________ of the government and asking the question: should we allow newspapers and television channels to print or say whatever they like? In the studio I have television personality Timothy Blake and 2____________ Rupert Poubelle, multimillionaire owner of the Daily Views newspaper. Timothy, let's start with you.

T.B.: Thank you. In my opinion, it's time the government imposed stricter 3____________ the press in order to prevent 4____________ journalists and reporters from making money by 5____________ people. I have often accused Mr Poubelle's organisation of 6____________ - nowadays I can't even sunbathe in my garden without being photographed by his hoards of 7____________. They're like vultures. And everything they print about me is lies, complete rubbish.

Interviewer: But isn't it true that the media provides us with valuable 8____________ and 9__________, and censorship would deprive us of much of this? Rupert?

R.P.: Of course. Mr. Blake's accusations are unfounded, as are the accusations of 10__________ we have received, and I can safely say that my journalists never pay people money to create stories. We are simply reporting the truth. Of course, if Mr. Blake wants to sue us for 11__________, he is very welcome to try. But he would be depriving our 12__________ - all eight million of them - of the things they want...

T.B.: You're talking rubbish, as usual, like the pathetic 13__________ you own and use to fill your pockets with dirty money.

R.P.: Now look here, mate...

Task 3: Now read this essay and complete the gaps with one of the words or expressions from Tasks 1 and 2. You may need to change the form of some of the words.

'The media plays a valuable role in keeping us informed and entertained. However, many people believe it has too much power and freedom.' Discuss your views on this, giving examples and presenting a balanced argument both in favour of, and against, the power and freedom of the media.'

 Barely a hundred years ago, if we wanted to stay informed about what was going on in the world, we had to rely on word of mouth or, at best, newspapers. But because communication technology was very basic, the news we received was often days or weeks old.

We still have newspapers, of course, but they have changed almost beyond recognition. Whether we choose to read the 1__________, with their quality 2__________ of news and other 3__________ by top 4__________, and articles by acclaimed 5__________, or if we prefer the popular 6__________, with their lively gossip and colourful stories, we are exposed to a wealth of information barely conceivable at the beginning of the last century.

We also have television and radio. News 7__________ let us know about world events practically as they happen, while sitcoms, chat shows and documentaries, etc. keep us entertained and informed. And there is also the 8__________, where we can access information from millions of 9__________ around the world which we can then 10__________ onto our own computers.

However, these forms of 11__________ and 12__________ (or 'infotainment' as they are now sometimes collectively called) have their negative side. Famous personalities frequently accuse the 13__________ (and sometimes even respectable papers) of 14__________ by the 15__________ who are determined to get a story at any cost. Newspapers are often accused of 16__________ by angry politicians who dislike reading lies about themselves, and there are frequent accusations of 17__________, with 18__________ reporters paying people to create stories for their newspapers or television programmes. Of course, it is not just the papers which are to blame. Sex and violence are increasing on the television. Undesirable people fill the 19__________ with equally undesirable material which can be accessed by anyone with a home computer. And the fear of 20__________ prevents many from 21__________ to the internet.

Many argue that the government should impose stricter 22__________ to prevent such things happening. But others argue that 23__________ is the keystone of a free country. Personally, I take the view that while the media may occasionally abuse its position of power, the benefits greatly outweigh the disadvantages. Our lives would be much emptier without the wealth of information available to us today, and we are better people as a result.

Work

Task 3: Now read this essay and complete the gaps with one of the words or expressions from Tasks 1 and 2. You may need to change the form of some of the words.

'Some people live to work, and others work to live. In most cases, this depends on the job they have and the conditions under which they are employed. In your opinion, what are the elements that make a job worthwhile?'

In answering this question, I would like to look first at the elements that combine to make a job undesirable. By avoiding such factors, potential 1_____________ are more likely to find a job that is more worthwhile, and by doing so, hope to achieve happiness in their work.

First of all, it doesn't matter if you are an 2____________ worker cleaning the floor, a 3____________ 4______________ worker on a production line in one of the 5______________ , or a 6______________ worker in a bank, shop or one of the other 7____________ __________ : if you lack 8_______________, with the knowledge that you might lose your job at any time, you will never feel happy. Everybody would like a 9_______________ in which he or she is guaranteed work. Nowadays, however, companies have a high turnover of staff, 10_____________ new staff and 11_____________ others on a weekly basis. Such companies are not popular with their workers.

The same can be said of a job in which you are put under a lot of 12_______________ and worry, a job which is so 13_______________ that it takes over your life, a job where you work 14_______________ and so never get to see your family or friends, or a physical job in which you do the same thing every day and end up with the industrial disease that is always in the papers nowadays - 15_______________.

With all these negative factors, it would be difficult to believe that there are any elements that make a job worthwhile. Money is, of course, the prime motivator, and everybody wants a good 16_______________ . But of course that is not all. The chance of 17_______________, of being given a better position in a company, is a motivating factor. Likewise, 18_______________ such as a free lunch or a company car, an 19_______________ scheme to make you work hard such as a regular 20_______________ above the rate of inflation, 21_______________ in case you fall ill and a company 22_______________ scheme so that you have some money when you retire all combine to make a job worthwhile.

Unfortunately, it is not always easy to find all of these. There is, however, an alternative. Forget the office and the factory floor and become 23_______________ and work for yourself. Your future may not be secure, but at least you will be happy.

Don't forget to keep a record of the words and expressions that you have learnt, review your notes from time to time and try to use new vocabulary items whenever possible.

Money & finance

Task 3: Now read this passage and complete the gaps with one of the words or expressions from Tasks 1 and 2. You may need to change the form of some of the words.

'Financial advice from a father to a son'

In the play 'Hamlet' by William Shakespeare, a father gives his son some financial advice. 'Neither a borrower nor a lender be', he says. He is trying to tell his son that he should never 1________________ money from anyone because it will make it difficult for him to manage his finances. Likewise he should never give a financial 2________________ to a friend because he will probably never see the money again, and will probably lose his friend as well.

The play was written over four hundred years ago, but today many parents would give similar advice to their children. Imagine the conversation they would have now:

Son: Right dad, I'm off to university now.

Father: All right son, but let me give you some sound financial advice before you go.

Son: Oh come on dad.....

Father: Now listen, this is important. The first thing you should do is to make sure you balance your 3________________ - the money you receive from me - and your 4________________ - the money you spend. If you spend too much, you will end up with an 5________________ at the bank. Don't expect me to pay it for you.

Son: But it's so difficult. Things are so expensive, and the 6________________ goes up all the time. 7________________ is running at about 10%.

Father: I know, but you should try to 8________________. Avoid expensive shops and restaurants. Also, put your money in a good 9________________. They offer a much higher rate of 10________________ than banks. Also, avoid buying things 11________________.

Son: Why?

Father: Because shops charge you an 12________________ amount of money to buy things over a period of time. It's much better to 13________________ a little bit of money each week so that when you see something you want, you can buy it outright. Try to wait for the sales, when shops offer huge 14________________ and you can pick up a 15________________. And try to get a 16________________.

Son: How do I do that?

Father: Easy. When you buy something, ask the shop if they'll lower the price by, say, 10%. Next, when you eventually get a job and are earning a good salary, try to 17________________ the money in a good company. Buy 18________________ in government organisations or 19________________ in private companies.

Son: OK dad, I've heard enough.

Father: One final piece of advice, son.

Son: What's that dad?

Father: To thine own self be true.

Son: You what?

14. Friends of the Earth, Greenpeace and other people concerned with protecting the environment are holding a forum in London next month.
15. The heating up of the earth's atmosphere by pollution is threatening life as we know it.

Task 3: Now look at this essay and complete the gaps with one of the words or expressions from Tasks 1 and 2. In some cases, more than one answer may be possible. You may need to change the form of some of the words.

'Environmental degradation is a major world problem. What causes this problem, and what can we do to prevent it?'

There is no doubt that the environment is in trouble. Factories burn 1__________ which produce 2__________ gases rise into the air and contribute to 4__________, which threatens to melt the polar ice cap. Meanwhile farmers clear huge areas of 5__________ in places such as the Amazon to produce feeding land for cattle or produce wood for building. Rivers and oceans are so heavily 6__________ by industrial waste that it is no longer safe to go swimming. Cars pump out poisonous 7__________ which we all have to breathe in. 8__________ and overfishing are killing off millions of animals, including whales, elephants and other 9__________. In fact, all around us, all living things large and small which comprise our finely balanced 10__________ are being systematically destroyed by human greed and thoughtlessness.

There is a lot we can all do, however, to help prevent this. The easiest thing, of course, is to 11__________ waste material such as paper and glass so that we can use it again. We should also check that the things we buy from supermarkets are packaged in 12__________ packaging which decomposes easily. At the same time, we should make a conscious effort to avoid foods which are 13__________ (at least until someone proves that they are safe both for us and for the environment). If you are truly committed to protecting the environment, of course, you should only buy 14__________ fruit and vegetables, safe in the knowledge that they have been naturally cultivated. Finally, of course, we should buy a small car that uses 15__________ which is less harmful to the environment or, even better, make more use of public transport.

The serious 16__________ , however, do much more. They are aware of the global issues evolved and will actively involve themselves in 17__________ by making sure our forests are kept safe for future generations. They will oppose activities which are harmful to animals, such as 18__________. And they will campaign to keep the 19__________ of our towns and cities free from new building.

We cannot all be as committed as them, but we can at least do our own little bit at grass roots level. We, as humans, have inherited the earth, but that doesn't mean we can do whatever we like with it.

Task 3: Now look at this extract from a magazine article and complete the gaps with one of the words or expressions from Tasks 1 and 2. In some cases, more than one answer may be possible. You may need to change the form of some of the words.

A cure for the future in the past?

For over fifty years, the people of Britain have relied on the 1___________ to make sure they have adequate health services. But now the National Health Service is sick. Government 2___________ and 3___________ are forcing hospitals to close, and waiting lists for treatment are getting longer. Under such circumstances, it is no surprise that more people are turning to private (but expensive) healthcare.

For some, however, there are alternatives. They are turning their back on modern pills, tablets and other 4___________ . It seems paradoxical, but in an age of microchips and high technology, 5___________ (the old-fashioned cures that our grandparents relied on) is making a comeback. Consider these case studies:

Maude is 76 and has been suffering from 6___________ for almost ten years. “The inflammation in my joints was almost unbearable, and my doctor referred me to a 7___________ at the London Hospital. I was told that I needed 8___________ , but would need to wait for at least two years before I could have the operation. In desperation, I started having massage sessions. To my surprise, these were very 9___________ , and while they didn’t cure the disorder, they did relieve it to some extent”.

Ron is 46. His high-powered city job was responsible for a series of 10___________ illnesses, and the drugs he took did little to relieve the nervous strain. “I read about treatments which involve the whole person rather than the individual symptoms, but I had always been sceptical about 11___________ . However, my friend recommended a dietician who advised me that part of my problem was 12___________ -related. Basically, the foods I was eating were contributing to my disorder. She gave me a list of foods that would provide the right 13___________ and 14___________ to keep me in good health. At the same time, she recommended a more 15___________ lifestyle - running, swimming, that kind of thing. I’m a bit of a couch potato, and the 16___________ lifestyle I had lived was compounding the problem. Now I feel great!”

So is there still a place in our lives for modern medicine? While it is true that some infections and viruses may be prevented by resorting to alternative medicine, more serious illnesses such as 17___________ need more drastic measures. We do need our health service at these times, and we shouldn’t stop investing in its future. But we mustn’t forget that for some common illnesses, the cure may lie in the past.

1. A person appointed to make legal decisions in a court of law.
2. A group of twelve citizens who are sworn to decide whether someone is guilty or innocent on the basis of evidence given in a court of law.
3. A person who sees something happen or is present when something happens.
4. A person who is accused of doing something illegal.
5. A person who is attacked or who is in an accident.
6. A qualified lawyer who gives advice to members of the public and acts for them in legal matters.
7. A person who commits an offence against the law.
8. A lawyer who can present a case in court.
9. An expression used to describe someone who obeys the law.

Task 2: The following groups of sentences describe the legal process which follows a crime. However, with the exception of the first sentence, the sentences in each group are in the wrong order. Put them into the correct order, using the key words in bold to help you. Some of these words appear in Task 1.

Part 1

A. One night, Jim Smith committed a serious crime. = Sentence 1
B. Jim asked the officer for a solicitor to help him.
C. At the same time, the police arranged for a barrister to prosecute him.
D. They took him to the police station and formally charged him with the crime.
E. When the trial began and he appeared in court for the first time, he pleaded his innocence.
F. The next morning the police arrested him.

Part 2

A. His barrister also said he was innocent and asked the court to acquit him. = Sentence 1
B. While he was in prison, he applied for parole.
C. As a result, the judge sentenced him to two years in prison.
D. He was released after 18 months.
E. However, there were several witnesses, and the evidence against him was overwhelming.
F. Having all the proof they needed, the jury returned a guilty verdict.

Crime and the law

Part 3

A. Unfortunately, prison failed to rehabilitate him and after his release he continued with his misdeeds, attacking an old woman in the street. = Sentence 1

B. Jim promised to reform and the pensioner withdrew her call for more severe retribution.

C. With this in mind, instead of passing a custodial sentence, he fined him a lot of money and ordered him to do community service.

D. He was re-arrested and returned to court.

E. His new victim, a pensioner, thought that the judge was being too lenient on Jim and called for the re-instatement of corporal punishment and capital punishment!

F. At his second trial the judge agreed that prison was not a deterrent for Jim.

Task 3: Now look at this extract from a politician’s speech and complete the gaps with one of the words or expressions from Tasks 1 and 2. In some cases, more than one answer may be possible. You may need to change the form of some of the words.

Are you worried about crime? I am. We read it every day in the papers. A terrible crime has been 1___________, the police have 2___________ someone, he has appeared in front of a jury in 3___________, he has 4___________ his innocence but has been found 5___________ of his crime and he has been 6___________ to ten years in prison. We are all very relieved that the criminal is being punished for his 7___________, and 8___________ citizens like you and me can sleep more safely at night.

But what happens next? We all hope, don’t we, that the prisoner will benefit from society’s 9___________, that a spell in prison will 10___________ him and make him a better person. We all hope that he will 11___________ and become like us. We all hope that when he is eventually 12___________ and let loose on the streets, he will be a good character, the threat of another spell in jail being a suitable 13___________ which will stop him from breaking the law again. Oh yes.

But let’s face it. The reality is usually very different. The prisoner may be released on 14___________, before the end of his sentence. He will try to re-enter society. But then he often becomes a 15___________ himself, unable to find work and rejected by society. It isn’t long before he’s back in prison again.

So what alternatives are there, I hear you say. What can we do to the 16___________ to make sure he doesn’t commit another crime? There are alternatives to prison, of course, such as 17___________ in which he will provide a service to those around him. Or he can pay a large 18___________ . Alternatively, we could establish a more severe system of punishment, including 19___________ and 20___________ , but we like to consider ourselves civilized, and the idea of beating or executing someone is repellent to us. Oh yes.

The answer, of course, is far simpler. We need to be tough not on the criminal, but on the cause of the crime. We should spend less of the taxpayer’s money funding the 21___________ and 22___________ and all the other people who work for the legal system, and put the money instead into supporting deprived areas which are the breeding grounds for crime. We in the ConLab Party believe that everybody needs a good chance in life, and this is a good step forward. Vote for us now!

OK, here's my new computer. As you can see, there are five main parts. Now this large box with the slots and sliding disc carrier is the most important part (1)_________________. It carries all the, eh, stuff that makes the computer work (2)_________________. You can also put in (3)_________________ your own games and other things (4)_________________. Next to it there is the thing that looks like a small television (5)_________________ so that you can see what the computer is doing. To the right of that, there is the machine that lets you make black and white or colour copies of the documents that you create on the computer (6)_________________. You can control the computer by using that rectangular flat thing with all the letters and numbers on (7)_________________ or that funny little object with the long lead which you can move across your desk (8)_________________. The large flat thing to the left of the computer is something you can use to make copies of your photographs or other documents onto the computer, a bit like a photocopier (9)_________________.

It's a very useful machine, of course. Once you, eh, get it up and running (10)_________________, you can do lots of things on it. You can create documents, play games or get information from this fantastic thing that links computers from around the world (11)_________________. A lot of companies and organizations have their own special computer page (12)_________________ which you can look at, and you can transfer the information (13)_________________ to your own computer files. Or, if you like, you can send messages to other people with computers by using this special facility called, eh, um, something I can't remember (14)_________________.

Unfortunately, I can't let you use it as it stopped working (15)_________________ last night. I think I must have done something wrong, but I can't imagine what. I've got a typewriter you can borrow if you like.

Task 3: Now look at this essay and fill in the gaps with one of the words or expressions from Tasks 1 and 2. In some cases, more than one answer may be possible. You may need to change some of the word forms.

Technology has come a long way in the last fifty years, and our lives have become better as a result. Or have they?

The second half of the twentieth century saw more changes than in the previous two hundred years. Penicillin has already been 1________________ and used to treat infections; there have been many remarkable advances in medicine that have helped to increase our average 2________________ way beyond that of our ancestors. Incredible 3________________ such as television have changed the way we spend our leisure hours. Perhaps the most important 4_________________, however, has been the microchip. Nobody could have imagined, when it was first 5________________, that within a matter of years, this tiny piece of silicon and circuitry would be found in almost every household object from the kettle to the video recorder. And nobody could have predicted the sudden proliferation of computers that would completely change our lives, allowing us to access information from the other side of the world via the 6________________ or send messages around the world by 7_________________ at the touch of a button. Meanwhile, 8________________ into other aspects of information technology is making it easier and cheaper for us to talk to friends and relations around the world. Good news for 9_________________ who love modern technology, bad news for the 10_________________ who would prefer to hide from these modern miracles.

But everything has a price. The development of 11________________ led to mass automation in factories, which in turn led to millions losing their jobs. The genius of Einstein led to the horrors of the atomic bomb and the dangerous uncertainties of 12________________ (we hear of accidents and mishaps at nuclear power stations around the world, where 13_________________ to prevent accidents were inadequate). The relatively new science of 14_________________ has been seen as a major step forward, but putting modified foods onto the market before scientists had properly 15________________ them was perhaps one of the most irresponsible decisions of the 1990s.

Meanwhile, pharmaceutical companies continue to 16________________ on animals, a move that many consider to be cruel and unnecessary.

Of course we all rely on modern science and technology to improve our lives. However, we need to make sure that we can control it before it controls us.

Don’t forget to keep a record of the words and expressions that you have learnt, review your notes from time to time and try to use new vocabulary items whenever possible.
Food and diet

Task 1: Find words in the box below which have the same meaning as the dictionary definitions 1-11. A sample sentence with the word removed has been given to you.

1. Units of measurement of energy in food.
   (Example: She's counting ____________ to try and lose weight)

2. A compound which is an essential part of living cells, one of the elements in food which you need to keep the human body working properly.

3. A chemical substance containing carbon, hydrogen and oxygen.
   (Example: Bread, potatoes and rice are good sources of ____________ )

4. A white substance from plants or animals which can be used for cooking.
   (Example: Fry the meat and drain off the ____________ )

5. Matter in food which cannot be digested and passes out of the body.
   (Example: A diet that doesn’t contain enough ____________ can cause intestinal problems)

6. A fatty substance found in fats and oils, also produced by the liver and forming an essential part of all cells.
   (Example: If you eat too much ____________, it can be deposited on the walls of arteries, causing them to become blocked)

7. Essential substance which is not synthesized by the body but is found in food and is needed for health and growth.
   (Example: He doesn’t eat enough fruit and suffers from ____________ C deficiency)

8. Substance which is found in food, but which can also be dug out of the earth.
   (Example: What is the ____________ content of spinach?)

9. Too heavy, often as a result of eating too much.
   (Example: The doctor says I’m ____________ and must go on a diet)

10. The result of not having enough to eat, or the result of eating too much of the wrong sort of food.
    (Example: Many of the children in the refugee camp were ____________ )

11. Receiving food.
    (Example: We are developing a scheme to improve ____________ in the poorer areas)
Food and diet

Task 2: Match sentences 1-10 with a second sentence A-J. Use the key words in bold to help you.

1. A lot of people are allergic to nuts.

8. There has been an outbreak of salmonella, listeria and other food poisoning in Perth.
9. Too many people don’t eat a balanced diet.
10. Fast food is very popular.

A. This is because they are cultivated naturally, without using any chemical fertilizers and pesticides.
B. There wasn’t enough to feed everyone affected by the disaster.
C. They are not sure that altering the composition of cells to change certain characteristics is safe.
D. It’s good to know that the animals were given enough space to express their natural behaviour.
E. Terrible weather conditions have prevented the crops from ripening and reduced the yield.
F. A lot of people are in hospital as a result.
G. Unfortunately, a diet of burgers, pizzas and fried chicken is not very healthy.
H. They physically react very badly.
I. This is because they spend their life confined in a small cage.
J. They don’t consume sufficient quantities of the different food groups.

Task 3: Now complete this article with one of the words or expressions from Tasks 1 and 2. In some cases, more than one answer may be possible. You may need to change some of the word forms.

Most children enjoy eating 1________________, but scientific tests have shown us that burgers and pizzas can lack essential 2________________ and 3________________, which are essential for health and growth, while simultaneously containing large amounts of 4________________ and 5________________ which can result in obesity and heart problems. Many children end up suffering from 6________________, since they eat too much of the wrong sort of food. In fact, in many areas of the developed world, a lot of children show similar symptoms to those in poorer developing countries, where 7________________ of food causes thousands of deaths from starvation, especially in the wake of natural disasters which ruin crops and in some cases totally destroy the annual 8________________.

Dieticians tell us that we must eat a 9________________, as it is essential we consume sufficient quantities of the different food groups. They tell us that we should all eat more 10________________, which cannot be digested by the body, and fewer foods which are high in 11________________, as this can block the walls of arteries and lead to heart problems. This is good advice, of course, but our lifestyles often make this difficult. Many of the ready-prepared foods we buy from supermarkets are high in 12________________, giving us more energy than we actually need. 13________________ foods are appearing on our supermarket shelves, even though nobody is really sure if altering the composition of food cells is safe. We have the option, of course, of buying 14________________ foods, but naturally-cultivated fruits and vegetables are expensive. And to make matters worse, we are continually hearing about outbreaks of 15________________ and 16________________ which put us off eating certain foods, as nobody wants to spend time in hospital suffering from 17________________.

A few things to watch out for next time you go shopping. If you have the time and the money, that is!

Task 3: Now read this case study and fill in the gaps with one of the words or expressions from Tasks 1 and 2. In some cases, more than one answer may be possible. You may need to change some of the word forms.

Bob's problems began during his 1__________ years. His parents got 2__________ when he was young, and neither of his parents wanted to raise him or his brother and sister, so he was 3__________ by a 4__________ chosen by his parent's social worker. Unfortunately, his foster-father was a strict 5__________ and often beat him. Bob rebelled against this strict 6__________, and by the time he was eight, he was already 7__________, stealing from shops and playing truant. By the time he reached 8__________, sometime around his thirteenth birthday, he had already appeared in court several times, charged with 9__________. The judge blamed his foster parents, explaining that children needed 10__________ parents and guardians who would look after them properly. The foster father objected to this, pointing out that Bob's 11__________ - his two brothers and sister - were 12__________ children who behaved at home and worked well at school.

This has raised some interesting questions about the modern family system. While it is true that parents should not be too 13__________ with children by letting them do what they want when they want, or be too 14__________ by sheltering them from the realities of life, it is also true that they should not be too strict. It has also highlighted the disadvantages of the modern 15__________ family where the child has only its mother and father to rely on (or the 16__________ family, in which the mother or father has to struggle particularly hard to support their 17__________). In fact, many believe that we should return to traditional family values and the 18__________ family: extensive research has shown that children from these families are generally better behaved and have a better chance of success in later life.

E. Somebody has decided to make it safer to use bicycles.
F. Somebody has almost driven through a red light and hit a person walking across the road.
G. Somebody has had to pay money because of a driving offence.
H. Somebody has consumed an illegal amount of alcohol before driving their car.
I. A lot of people have been killed in traffic-related accidents.
J. Somebody has been driving too fast.

Task 3: Now read this article and fill in the gaps with one of the words or expressions from Tasks 1 and 2. In some cases, more than one answer may be possible. You may need to change some of the word forms.

and 2 on Britain's roads are increasing from year to year: last year, 2,827 people were killed and almost 300,000 hurt in traffic-related accidents. Most of these were caused by drivers in built-up areas, where many seem to disregard the 30mph limit, or 4, especially around Christmas, when more alcohol is consumed than at any other time. In many cases, it is 5 who are the victims, knocked down as they are walking across the street by drivers who seem to have forgotten that the rules of the 6 order you to stop at red lights.

But these innocent victims, together with the help of the police and local councils, are fighting back. In Oxford, a city plagued by caused by traffic, and a notorious accident for pedestrians and cyclists, the city council has recently implemented its new , which has improved the flow of traffic to the benefit of those on foot or on two wheels. measures such as bollards and speed humps have slowed traffic down. schemes have helped reduce the number of cars in the city, as office workers and shoppers leave their cars outside the city and bus in instead. Cornmarket Street, the main shopping thoroughfare, has been designated a , closed to all vehicles during the day. There are more on main routes into the city, making it safer for the huge number of students and residents who rely on bicycles to get around. And public transport has helped to keep down the cost of using buses. Meanwhile, the police and the courts are coming down hard on drivers who misuse the roads, handing down large 17 on selfish, inconsiderate drivers who believe it is their right to 18 the roads.

Task 3: Now read this article and fill in the gaps with one of the words or expressions from Tasks 1 and 2. In some cases, more than one answer may be possible. You may need to change some of the word forms.

For seven years I lived in Singapore, a 1__________________________ of almost three million people. Like London, Paris and New York, Singapore is a 2__________________________ city, with people from different parts of the world living and working together. I enjoyed the 3__________________________ lifestyle I led there, and made the most of the superb 4__________________________, ranging from the excellent shops to some of the best restaurants in the world. In the evenings and at weekends there were always 5__________________________, with such diverse attractions as classical western music, an exhibition of Malay art or a Chinese opera in the street, it was difficult to get bored. Perhaps most impressive, however, was the remarkable transport 6__________________________, with excellent roads, a swift and efficient bus service and a state-of-the-art underground system which could whisk 7__________________________ from the suburbs straight into the heart of the city (this was particularly important, as the government banned private cars from entering the 8__________________________ during the morning and afternoon 9__________________________ in order to reduce 10__________________________ on the roads and 11__________________________ from the exhausts).

Of course, living in a city like this has its disadvantages as well. For a start, the 12__________________________ can be very high - renting an apartment, for example, is very expensive. And as the city is expanding, there are a lot of 13__________________________ where new apartments are continually being built to deal with the 14__________________________ which is a direct result of the government encouraging people to have more children.

Fortunately, Singapore doesn't suffer from problems that are common in many cities such as 15__________________________, which is partly the result of the government imposing very severe penalties on anyone bringing narcotics into the country, so it is safe to walk the streets at night. In fact, the 16__________________________ housing estates there are probably the safest and most orderly in the world.

Singapore wouldn't be ideal for everyone, however, especially if you come from the countryside and are used to a 17__________________________ lifestyle. The traditional villages that were once common have disappeared as the residents there realised there were no 18__________________________ for their future and moved into new government housing in the city. Nowadays, there is very little 19__________________________ around the city, which means that Singapore imports almost all of its food. And despite a 'green' approach to city planning, the 20__________________________ which has eaten into the countryside has had a detrimental effect on the 21__________________________.

Report from the director of the West Twyford Town Planning Committee

The last year has been a busy one for the West Twyford Town Planning Committee. Outlined below are a few of the areas we have concentrated on.

1. Applications for 1__________ permission from home owners who want to develop their properties have increased by 50%. However, many of these homes are historic buildings and have 2__________ orders which prevent them from being altered externally. At present, we can only allow owners to 3__________ the inside of their homes (including installing central heating and improved wall insulation).

2. Last summer we invited several 4__________ to design plans for the new council offices on Peach Street. We eventually chose Barnard, Jackson and Willis, a local company. It was generally agreed that their design, which included a grey tinted 5__________ at the front of the building, was the most aesthetically pleasing. They are currently in the process of laying the 7__________ for the new building, which we understand is taking some time as the land must be drained first.

3. In response to a lot of complaints about the lack of 8__________ facilities in the town, it was agreed at last month’s meeting that funds should be set aside for the construction of a new sports centre and youth club.

4. Several 9__________ buildings which have been ruined and abandoned for over five years are to be knocked down. In their place, a new housing 10__________ will be built. This will provide twenty new homes within the next two years.

5. Everybody agrees that the new shops on the High Street are 11__________. It is certainly true that they are very ugly and out of keeping with the other buildings on the street. In future, we must ensure that all new buildings are built in a 12__________ style so that they fit in with the older buildings around them.

6. There has been an increased crime rate in the 13__________ to the east of the town. We plan to demolish these dirty areas within the next eight years and re-house the residents in new 14__________ apartments in the Berkely Heath district.

7. In an attempt to help the environment, we are going to make the town hall more 15__________ . Windows will be double-glazed, walls and ceilings will be insulated and we will replace the current central heating system.

My next report will be in two months’ time. Anybody wishing to discuss these issues can contact me on extension 287.

Task 1: Look at the words and expressions in bold in the following sentences and decide if we generally consider them to have a positive connotation or a negative connotation.

1. At the interview, the manager was impressed by her astute comments.
2. In the power struggle between men and women, neither side will win.
3. After the takeover, the staff hoped that things would improve, but the new manager was just as ruthless as the man he replaced.
4. Some men believe that women are the weaker sex and should leave real work to men.
5. Our boss is a male chauvinist and believes that women should get less money than men for the same job.
6. John doesn’t consider women to be very intelligent. To him, they are just sex objects.
7. Our company is male-dominated; all the top management positions are occupied by men.
8. Maureen is a multi-faceted worker. She is able to do a number of different jobs, often at the same time.
9. He holds egalitarian views and believes that everybody should be treated equally.
10. The new management has taken steps to ensure equality in the office; from now on, everyone will receive the same money regardless of their sex or age.
11. Militant feminists have thrown paint at a well-known television personality in order to stress their views.

Chris: Cleaning and cooking are a woman’s job. After all, men are no good at 1. ________________.

Terry: What rubbish! Thank goodness the 2. ________________ exists to prevent men from taking advantage of women.

Chris: Well, let’s face it, in the workplace women never do as well as their 3. ________________.

Terry: And I suppose you think that women are only good for changing babies’ nappies and other tedious aspects of 4. ________________.

Chris: No, but I do believe that in a modern household there should be a clearly-defined 5. ________________. Men are good at DIY, for example. Most women aren't. And I’ll always believe that it’s the man who should be the 6. ________________, providing food and shelter for his family.

Terry: Well, all I can say is that I’m glad your ideas of 7. ________________ are not shared by most people.

Chris: Nonsense! A lot of people believe in traditional 8. ________________; the man goes out to work, the woman stays at home. It’s as simple as that.

Terry: Men at work and women at home? Come on dear, those are such typical 9. ________________

With people like you around, the 10. ________________ will always continue.

Chris: Oh, shut up dad.

Terry: Sorry Christine, but it’s an issue I feel strongly about.

Men and women

Task 3: Now read this essay and complete the gaps with one of the words or expressions from Tasks 1 and 2.

'Men and women are, and always will be, different in the way they behave and are treated'. Do you agree with this statement?

A totally (1)_________________ society, in which sexual (2)_________________ between men and women is the norm, is still a long way off. This is certainly the case if you watch television, where men are often portrayed as the (3)_________________ , bringing money home to the wife, who is usually depicted as the (4)_________________ , prone to extreme emotions and temper tantrums. But is this really the case? Is it still fair to create (5)_________________ such as this?

After all, as more women go out to work and more men stay at home to look after the house and the kids, it is quite clear that so-called (6)_________________ are merging and disappearing.

Take the office workplace as an example. For years, businesses and companies were (7)_________________ - the directors, managers and businessmen were always men, the secretaries and personal assistants always female. This was probably because men have traditionally been seen as more (8)_________________ , more able to deal with the cut-and-thrust of business. But now women are proving that they can be equally tough, while simultaneously being more (9)_________________ and caring. In fact, in many ways, women are more (10)_________________ than men, a vital aspect of modern business where you are expected to do more than just one job. And thanks to the (11)_________________ , women are paid the same as men. It would appear that, in many cases, the (12)_________________ is a dying breed.

At home, too, there is less evidence of (13)_________________ . It is no longer the woman who does all the cooking and cleaning and (14)_________________ . Such (15)_________________ is now often shared equally. (16)_________________ no longer requires the woman to stay indoors all day while the man stays out until all hours. Whether this is due to the struggle by the (17)_________________ in the 1960s and 1970s, or whether it is due to a natural shift in attitudes is unclear.

What is clear, however, is that women no longer feel they need to be regarded as (18)_________________ , the underdogs in a (19)_________________ with their (20)_________________ . In fact, many believe that in the (21)_________________ , it is women who have come out on top.

Task 3: Now look at this report of a journey and fill in the gaps with one of the words or expressions from Tasks 1 and 2. In some cases, more than one answer may be possible. You may need to change some of the word forms.

We began our journey in the capital, Trinifuegos, a 1______________ conurbation of almost ten million. It is not a pretty place; heavily 2______________, with huge factories belching out black fumes, and miles of 3______________ as housing estates and shopping centres spread out from the 4______________ centre for miles. It was a relief to leave.

As soon as we got into the countryside, things improved considerably. The climate is dry and it is difficult to grow anything, but thanks to 5______________, which helps bring water in from the Rio Cauto (the huge river with its 6______________ high up in the snow-covered 7______________ of the Sierra Maestra 8______________), the land is fertile enough to grow the sugar cane on which much of the economy is based. We saw few people, however, as many have moved to the towns and cities to look for more profitable work. It is largely due to this rural 9______________ that the sugar-cane industry is suffering.

Further south and we entered the Holguin 10______________, with mountains rising high above us on both sides. The land here drops sharply to the sea and the slow-moving waters of the Rio Cauto give way to 11______________, which tumble over cliffs, and small, fast-moving 12______________, which are not even wide enough to take a boat. At this point, the road we were travelling along became a 13______________, which was only just wide enough for our vehicle, and then an unpaved 14______________, which almost shook the vehicle to pieces.

And then suddenly, the Pacific 15______________ was in front of us. Our destination was the town of Santiago de Gibara, built on a 16______________, sticking out into the blue waters. The countryside here undulates gently, with low 17______________ covered in rich tropical jungle. The open 18______________ surrounding the 19______________ of the Rio Cauto as it reaches the ocean is rich and 20______________, ideal for growing the tobacco plants which need a lot of warm, damp soil.

That night I lay in my cheap hotel, listening to the waves gently lapping the 21______________, and when I eventually fell asleep, I dreamt of the people who had first inhabited this 22______________ almost two thousand years before.

REPORT FROM THE INTERNATIONAL CHARITIES SUPPORT FOUNDATION (ICSF)

The last year has been a particularly busy one for the ICSF. Outlined below are a few of the areas we have been busy in.

1. Following 1 _________________ rain in eastern Mozamlumbi in January, millions were made homeless as 2 _________________ waters rose. The water also became polluted and there was a cholera 3 _________________ as people continued to use it for drinking and cooking. Furthermore, as the harvest had been destroyed and there was not enough food to go round, 4 _________________ became a problem. Charities around the world worked particularly hard to bring 5 _________________ to the area.

2. Mount Etuvius, the 6 _________________ which had been dormant since 1968, 7 _________________ suddenly in April. Thousands had to be evacuated to camps thirty miles from the disaster area. They still have not been rehoused.

3. The 8 _________________ in the Caribbean in July, which saw wind speeds of up to 180 miles per hour, caused immense 9 _________________ on many islands. Islands off the Japanese coast also suffered their worst 10 _________________ in almost thirty years, with prolonged winds in excess of 150 miles per hour. There were many 11 _________________ who had to be evacuated to hospitals which were not properly equipped to deal with the disasters.

4. The 12 _________________ in the northern part of Somopia continued into its second year, with millions of acres of crops destroyed by lack of rain. Meanwhile, the 13 _________________ between those loyal to the president and those supporting the rebel leader continued into its fifth year. 14 _________________ from the conflict have been fleeing across the border, with stories of atrocities committed by both sides.

5. In October, a fire 15 _________________ through Londum, the ancient capital of Perania. The 16 _________________, which probably started in a bakery, destroyed thousands of homes. There were several 17 _________________ when the fire reached a fireworks factory, and a number of people were killed.

6. An outbreak of bubonic 18 _________________ was reported in the eastern provinces of Indocuba in November. It is believed to have been caused by a sudden increase in the number of rats breeding in the sewers.

A full report will be available in February, and will be presented to the appropriate departments of the United Nations shortly afterwards.

Note: When we describe how an object works and there is no person or other agent involved in our description, we use the active voice ('Light enters the glass object and a small door opens up'). When there is a person involved in the process, we usually use the passive voice ('This can be released...' '...a button is pressed'). This is because the action or process is more important than the person doing it.

1. advise = advice
Many English words can be nouns and verbs without a change in spelling. However, some words which end in -ice when they are nouns end with -ise when they become verbs. For example, practice (noun) = practise (verb)

2. acheive = achieve
A lot of English words use a combination of i and e. The order of these letters can be confusing.
In most words where these letters are pronounced as ee (as in cheese), the i comes before the e (for example, siege, thief, field, belief, piece) unless the letters are preceded by the letter c (for example, ceiling, conceit, receive, deceive).

However, not all words follow this rule. Exceptions include caffeine, protein, neither, either and seize.

When the letters are pronounced ay (as in hate), the e comes before the i (for example, weigh, veil, neighbour, eight).

There are other words which must be learned individually. These are: foreign, forfeit, height, heir, leisure, their, surfeit, sovereign.

3. aquire = acquire
A lot of English words contain silent letters - in other words, a letter which we do not pronounce when we say the word. There are very few rules to tell you which is which, so you must learn each word individually or use a dictionary to check the spelling of a word if you are not sure.
Answers

Some common examples of silent letters include:

Silent A: February parliament marriage
Silent B: comb bomb womb doubt
Silent C: conscience scene discipline scissors
Silent D: Wednesday handsome
Silent G: campaign design
Silent H: ghost school vehicle rhythm
Silent I: business hygiene nuisance
Silent N: autumn column condemn
Silent T: listen mortgage
Silent U: biscuit colleague (which also has a silent e at the end) guarantee guess
Silent W: answer whole
Silent GH: though thorough weigh height

4. swimming = swimming
We double the last letter of single-syllable words ending with a single vowel and a single consonant when we add a suffix (e.g., -ing):
swim - swimming run - running dip - dipped

We usually do the same thing if a two-syllable word is stressed on the second syllable:
begin - beginning regret - regrettable prefer - preferring

We do not double the last letter in the following cases:
- when a word ends with w, x or y
- when the suffix begins with a consonant (e.g., bad - badly)
- when a word ends with l and the suffix -ly is added (e.g., playful - playfully)
- when two vowels come before the final consonant (e.g., weep - weeping)

5. thieves = thieves
Most nouns are regular. This means that we add an s to make them plural (e.g., car - cars). However, some nouns are irregular - we either do not add an s to the word to make it plural or we add s plus some other letters.

In nouns which end with a consonant and y, the y changes to i and we add s:
party - parties baby - babies worry - worries

In nouns which end with s, sh, tch and x, we add es:
bus - buses dish - dishes watch - watches box - boxes

In some nouns which end in f or fe, we replace the f with a v and add es.
calf - calves half - halves knife - knives life - lives wife - wives

In some words which end with o, we add es.
cargo - cargoes echo - echoes hero - heroes

Some words do not change at all.
fish, deer, sheep

And some words have their own individual rules:
man - men child - children woman - women person - people

6. hoping = hoping
We drop the e from a word when a suffix which begins with a vowel (e.g., -ing) is added to a word which ends in a consonant plus a silent e:
hope - hoping tape - taping give - giving immature - immaturity

Peter Collin Publishing © 2001. For reference, see the English Dictionary for Students (1-901659-06-2)
Answers

We also drop the e from a word when a suffix which begins with a vowel is added to a word which ends in a vowel plus a silent e: continue - continuity  pursue - pursuing  argue - arguable

When a suffix begins with a consonant (e.g., -ment) we do not usually drop the e, although there are some exceptions (e.g., awe - awful, true - truly)

7. happiness = happiness
We change the y to i when it follows a consonant and a suffix is added (e.g., happy - happiness)

We do not usually change the y to i when the y follows a vowel (e.g., play - playful) or when the suffix added is -ing (e.g., cry - praying)

Task 1

Task 2

Note:
Most large towns and cities in Britain have 'Park and Ride' schemes. These are large car parks outside city centres where drivers can park their car, usually for free. They can then take a bus into the city centre.

Distances and speed limits in Britain are in miles or miles per hour (1 mile = 1.6 kilometres). The maximum speed limit in Britain is 60mph on single-lane roads outside towns, or 70mph on dual-carriageways or motorways. In most towns and cities, the maximum speed limit is usually 20 or 30 mph. Drivers who are caught speeding can face penalties ranging from a fine to imprisonment, depending on how fast they are driving and where. They can also have their driving licence suspended.

Drink driving is considered a very serious offence. Offenders automatically have their driving licence suspended for at least a year, will normally receive a fine and may go to prison.
